The Québec and Lévis directories contains full listings of the inhabitants, in addition to additional information accompanied with descriptive plans of the city of Quebec and its suburbs.

Please note that the Lovell Directory for the region indicated above does not exist -

What does exist are Directories by publishers such as: Marcotte, Mackay, McLaughlin, Cherrier & Kirwin, Cherrier, Irwin & Co, Bennett, Brent's and others.

In the early years, a high percentage of the families listed were British, Scottish, Irish, Americans, Germans in addition to French Canadians

Most of the comments within these directories during the early years are in the English language

From 1890, the comments are in the English and French languages

From 1955 onward, the comments are mostly in the French language.

From 1861 or about, said directories contain complete lists of all of the inhabitants of the city with full descriptions of their businesses, professions and information carefully collected in reference to government and public offices, banks, corporate institutions and companies in Quebec City.
