The seigneurial system in Nouvelle France (New France was introduced in 1627

The dimensions of seigniories (seigneuries) of the 17th and 18th centuries in Nouvelle France (New France) were about:

>> Depth: 15 to 30 miles (25 to 50 kilometers)

>> Width: 4 miles (7 kilometers)

Average concession to a censitaire (tenant): 0.004 square miles (3 arpents under the French Regime of Nouvelle France (1627-1759)

<https://www.linguee.com/french-english/translation/censitaire.html>

Number of seigniories (seigneuries) organized in Nouvelle France (New France) 1627-1759 = 197 seigniories – 73 of the preceding were arrière-fiefs

Number of seigniories during the Lower Canada period
1791-1841 = 227 seigniories

Many if not most of the seigniories organized under the French regime continued under British rule after 1759, some under different ownership, some under same ownership. Some were simply renamed to the family name of the new "seigneur"

The seigniorial system in Quebec stopped in 1854
